Headline:
Dry, bright day with sunny spells.

Today:
Any early mist soon clearing to leave a dry day with good spells of sunshine. Becoming a little cloudier this afternoon, perhaps an isolated light shower possible over western Aberdeenshire. Feeling pleasant in the sunshine. Freshening southwesterly breeze. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
All parts will have a dry night with clear periods. Quite cold with a few mist patches in places sheltered from the westerly breeze. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Tuesday:
Another dry and bright day coming up with sunny spells. Cloudier skies will edge across from west later. Feeling quite warm although southwesterly winds will strengthen during the day. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
A change to something more typically autumnal for the rest of the week. Turning cooler and it will be windy at times along with blustery showers and some sunshine.
